

DISCOVER SCOTLAND ITINERARY - 3 DAYS

Today's travellers are more discerning about the impact of their choices on the environment - whether it is how they travel and how frequently, what they eat, where they stay and what they do. We will help you build trips that will allow your clients to enjoy outstanding travel experiences whilst helping protect the environment.

We aim to develop Glasgow's tourism sector to benefit our citizens, our economy and environment in line with our sustainability plan. Our 3 day trade itinerary will give you suggestions on a variety of experiences that support our aims.

DAY 1

MORNING

THE BURRELL COLLECTION

The world-renowned Burrell Collection, situated in Pollok Park, is known for its quality of Chinese art, stained glass and tapestries, as well as its breadth of fine art. The collection was donated to the city and was described at the time as: "One of the greatest gifts ever made to any city in the world." New displays give visitors a better understanding of the international significance of artworks. As well as the people who made them and some of the people who have owned them. The Collection is home to the Wagner garden carpet, one of the earliest surviving Persian garden carpets in the world. After exploring the vast collection, relax in the café with views across the park or head to the award-winning gift shop to pick up a souvenir of your visit.
