Introducing our Glasgow Music Tour from the end of January 2022!

To celebrate the launching of Visit Scotland's UNESCO trail we have collaborated with Glasgow Music City Tours and Go Radio to bring you an all new tour commentary focusing on Glasgow's vibrant musical history and the best places to experience the music scene today!

Narrated by the multi award winning singer song writer Eddi Reader, our Music Tour will tell you everything you need to know about Glasgow's best music venues, from King Tut's and the Barrowlands to the OVO Hydro Arena. It will reveal Glasgow's close relationship with music throughout history with a range of interesting stories, facts and some insider knowledge from Eddi herself on what exactly makes Glasgow such a wonderful, vibrant and musical city!

Sit back and enjoy this exploration of Glasgow from a different perspective by tuning into our music tour on channel 8 of our multilingual commentary!

Some Important Information

This commentary is available on all of our multilingual tours, but not on buses which have live guides. The music tour is not a separate (or a different) tour, it follows the same route as shown on our tour map and standard fares and ticket validity apply.

Our music commentary is available all year round.
